FRE: Russia is too powerful now. We must form an alliance to prevent Russia's further expansion. So let's cease hostilities. I can also help you defend against England's attacks, allowing you to fully focus on countering Russia.

FRE: But I do not share a border with Russia.

FRE: Alright, I agree.

AUS: I agree to the alliance, but I hope you can also participate in the attack on Russia.

AUS: I can give Munich to you, but you need to exchange it with Napoli. Also, I hope your fleets will not be used to attack England, but rather to attack Russia's territories in Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and other regions.

AUS: OK.
